THE DIVORCE BUSINESS.

The New York World, of the 1st inst., con

The New Tork World, of the 1st inst., contains the following:

In the following the following saids the feeters of divorce recently obtained by Charlotte B. Nichols against her husband Aiex, B.

T. Nichols. The motion was made by exJudge Jehn K. Porter, who, in his remarks, characterized the case as a very extraordinary one. A young man of irreproachable character, he said, was charged with the vilest adaltery on the false affidavit of a nameleas individual, which affidavit is procured on the continuous of an adulters—who was once has own wife—and her paramons.

The case is so remarkable in every respect that a full resume of the facts, as we gather them from previous publications and the affidavits, will be interesting:

On the shi of May, 1866, the marriage took place at Nawtown, Coun., of Alexander H. T. Nichols and Charlotte B. Beers. Mr. Nichols and Charlotte B. Beers. Mr. Nichols was young, handsoms, of excellent character and of a wealthy and highly repsectable family. His father was Rev. Bannel Nichols, of Greenfield Hill, Coun., and three of his brothers have distinguished themselves in the various walks they have chosen in this city. The bride was an orphan, possessed of over $100,000 in her own right, which an estimable valuer had left to his only daughter with his blessing. As it has turned-out, his blessing would have been of more effect without the money.

ouple went on a four to Nasgan and elecwhere, and lived hepply! for nearly two years.

Mrs. Nichols, though a country girl, is said to have conceived a great fancy for gay life, and her personal expensed during the year 1867 were about fitteen thousand dollars. Mr. Nichols, as the country, hough always well, irressed, and appreciating a good horse or yacht, is said to have cared very little for theaters, and to have decisted the opera. He liked what he called "old-keshkoned comfort," the liked what he called "old-keshkoned comfort," and his greatest price in his wife during has houcymose used to be that, she was "a plant country girl."

iliked what he called "old-fashioned comfort," is and his grantest price in his wife dring has honorymose med to be that she was "a plan a country girl."

His wife was thus left in that nursery of ririus, a city hotel.

Mr. Nichola was sequalated with the family of John D. Gebhard, of Schoharle, the young er members of which consisted of two brothers and two slaters. He had acted as groomsman at a wedding at Brooklyn, where the Gebhard alasters were bridsemaids, and the families had interchanged visits. Colombi Gesbard, frequently visited Mrs. Nicholos, the St. Denk Hotel, dining with her when her hasband was kept down town un business, accompanying her to picture gallerios and amusements, and becoming exceedingly unitnate with her.

Mrs. Nichols explained the frequent vists of the Coloned by stating that she needed a legal adviser in many matters relating to the control of her property, and that Gebhard gave her the needed legal advise. Geobard began is take a deep and effectionate interest in Mrs. Nicholos' property.

Gebhard and Mrs Nishols got off the Smith in the British Channel by appears arrangement with the capain, most west to Falmount. They arrived there on the 18th of Fane, taming in a small book, and, representing themselves as Coonel and Mrs. Gebhard, shock a room together, passing as man and wife, as appears by affiderit, but not remissing over a light.

They were followed by Mr. Edward Umpleby,

Gebhard and Mrs. Nichola went to London, putting up at the Western Rotel, passing a man and wife, and having one bedroors and partor, that while there Mrs. Nichola war laken site and the late there are a no office seather than the property of the seather than the property of the New York papers saying that he had been startled by reading the account of the cloptement of hisself and a larly whem he had taken under his protection," and daying any thing improper in the similar. Mr. Nichola, feeling fearingly wenogo oved, with whom had the confiderer, dissolved most of his business in this city and won'tee Greenfield Hill, where he has since resided. He is an officer of the Sons of Temperance at that place and is said to enjoy the respect and confidence of all who know him.

Afterwards, William D. Gebbard and one of his sisters visited Europe, to speed a short time with the cloping couple. Last winter Gebbard and Mrs. Nichola returned.

This spring Mrs. Nichola returned.

This spring Mrs. Nichola returned.

The mode of procuring such a divorce is as follows:

W. W. Northrup, plaintiff's attorner, who, from a subsequent affidavit, seems to have had nothing to do with the slaik of Nichola frowher had nothing to be find.

The mode of p

On the 6th day of July, Mr. Nichola having made no naswer, notice of appearance or domarrer, Judge Barward referred the case to William Tracy, Esq., as referee. Mr. Tracy the same day took testimony, and the next day rendered his report that the facts were established: first, that the plaintiff and defendant were married and lived as man and wife account, that plaintiff, at the time of time adultery charged, was a resident of New York; third, that the defendant, March 15, 1838, 41 No. 20 Twellh street, a house of assignation, committed adultery and had carnal intercourse with a woman whose same was not proved. Upon this he gives his opinion in favor of granting a director.

with a woman whose name was not proven. Upon this gives also opinion in favor of granting a divorce.

DIVORORD AND FORRIDDEN TO MARRY.

Judge Barnard therefore grants a decree closing as follows:

"And it is further ordered and adjudged that the marriage between the said piantiff Chariotte B. Nichols, and the said pointing Chariotte B. Nichols, be dissolved, and their said marriage is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed from the obligations thereof, and further, that it shall be inwful for the said plaintiff, Chariotte R. Nichols, to marry again in the same manner as though the said defendant was actually dead. But it shall not be lawful for the said defendant to marry again until the said plaintiff be actually dead.

attorney for Mrs. Nichola.

In reference to the handwriting of the documents Mr. Price testifies:

"That he has seen the pungages roll in this ection filed in the office of the Clera of the City and County of New York; that the complaint, the affidavit of Charicelle B. Nichola, sworn to April 28, 1800, the affidavit of Chear W. Smith, sworn to April 28, 1800, the affidavit of Chear was the testimony of Henry B. Harrison, worn to barries and the testimony of Henry B. Harrison, worn to barries was the testimony of Henry B. Harrison, worn to barries was the testimony of Henry B. Harrison, worn to be added to summons is in deponent's handwriting."

In reference to the use of various kinds of link, Gilbert B. Wood testifies:

"That said David J. Price informed deponent that said House the use of various kinds of link, Gilbert B. Wood testifies:

"That said David J. Price informed deponent that said House was in the habit of using, in bis office, in the preparation of pagers, in order to show a dissimilarity between body of pagers and the signature thereto, three differents shades of link, viz biack, violet, and black and whole shaded logother, that is the shades of link are used, viz those shove clasted, beponend further says that he is the notary before whom said Price unde said affidavit."

The main ground of the divorce is, however, the adultery, which is sworn to before the referce.

The charge was made by one Henry B. Harrison, who swore point blank that he knew of Mr. Nichola committing adultery. Now the next curious thing about Mr. Harrison is that he can not be found. Naturally the first place of divorce was therefore vary property vacated, as before stated.
